New HLF Board members Pam Cavanagh, Chris Jones and Jack Irvine

The Humboldt Library Foundation is honored to welcome three new board members to our ranks.

As a sixty year Humboldt County resident and retired Arcata High School English teacher, Pam Cavanagh understands that literacy is a major component for a successful life. Pam has a long history of community service and volunteering with organizations such as P.E.O, Eastern Star, CATE, SRPP, the Eureka Symphony and AAUW.

Retired physician and current part owner of Eureka Books, Jack Irvine clearly understands our need for a healthy library system. Jack brings a wealth of experience to the HLF board including acting as former president of both the Clarke Museum board and St. Joseph hospital board as well as currently serving on the Board of Directors for the Humboldt Senior Resource Center.

From the HUMBOLDT LIBRARY FOUNDATION

Current Executive Director of Tri-County Independent Living and former Human Resource Director at General Hospital, Chris Jones has a long history of working with non-profit organizations. Chris currently volunteers with the Area 1 Agency Advisory Committee and is a member of Rotary Club of Southwest Eureka and has formerly served with the Making Headway Advisory Committee and the Northwest Committee for Employment of People with Disabilities.

The Humboldt Library Foundation board is hard working and committed to keeping our Humboldt County Library system healthy and vital. We look forward to tapping the energy, personality and experience our new board members Pam Cavanagh, Jack Irvine and Chris Jones bring to the table and are honored that they have agreed to be part of the Humboldt Library Foundation board.
